cultivation, but not for its outright sale. If this land is not required by the Forests Department, the proper course to follow would be to institute dis-afforestation proceedings and and after dis-afforestation to hand over the land to the Revenue Department. The land can thereafter be disposed of by sale to private parties by the Revenue authorities under the procedure laid down in Chapter IV of the Rules issued under the Coorg Land and Revenue Regulation No.1 of 1899.

I write to state that in connection with the area originally leased out to Sri M.K. Hassinare and subsequently transferred to Sri Ame Krishnappa of Karike village, Government in their reference cited above directed this office to take steps to disreserve the area so that it could be transferred to the Revenue Department for disposal permanently to the applicant.

Conservator of Forests, Coorg Circle, now expresses that it would be preferable to retain the area as forest and continue the lease to the party annually, as has been the procedure so far adopted. I concur with him and request ~~them~~ Government to kindly withdraw the orders issued in their reference cited above.
